

I attended [Healing TREE Founder + CEO] Marissa's recent presentation in Atlanta.

I was able to immediately draw upon the value of her message - to be trauma-informed when with a client.

- I sent the daughter of a friend to the site. She had worked in a restaurant where the owner ran a cult-like environment.
- I sent one client and one friend to the site for their experiences with religious cults.
- I will use the information with a client who is in a cult-like polyamory relationship with physical trauma experience

It's amazing to me that the information's value would show up so close to the presentation and be so immediately meaningful to my practice for it to be applied and shared so quickly.

Thank you, Marissa.
